Next steps

- Print or save a PDF record of your director ID.
- Give your director ID to the person responsible for maintaining the records of any companies or Indigenous corporations that you are a director of. This may be the company secretary, another director, an authorised agent or contact person.

Protect yourself

Your director ID confirms your identity and relationship to a company or Indigenous corporation. Only give your written consent to being appointed if you will play an active role in overseeing the business affairs of the company or Indigenous corporation.

If you suspect someone has been misusing your identity or director ID, contact us (https://www.abrs.gov.au/contact-us)
